NOTIFICATIONS.

The 2nd March 1889.

No. 224.— Under the powers conferred by Section 54 of the Prisons Act, 1870, extended to Mysore by Government of India, Foreign Department, Notification No. 246, dated the 4th September 1879, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to sanction the following rules in respect of life-term prisoners in the Territories of Mysore.

RULES.

I.

1. In future the Inspector General of Prisons is hereby empowered to admit every life-term prisoner, who has completed 16 years in the Jail and who has conducted himself well, on the report of the Superintendent to the benefit of these rules.

2. Prisoners under these rules shall wear a distinctive uniform to be prescribed by the Superintendent of the Central Jail under the sanction of the Inspector General.

3. They shall be provided with sleeping accommodation inside the walls of the Jail.

4. Prisoners under these rules may be accommodated in the same sleeping barrack.

5. They shall, at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Jail, be allowed to work at their trade, or be employed as convict officials; in the former case, they shall receive half of their earnings; in the latter, half the pay of the lowest grade of peon.

6. Prisoners under these rules shall be allowed such special indulgences in the matter of food as the Inspector General may, on the recommendation of the Superintendent, sanction.

7. Prisoners under these rules may, at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Jail, be allowed to send to their relatives portion of the money at their credit in the prisoners' property register.

8. They shall be allowed to see their relatives, or to write to them, once in three months; interviews with their relatives shall be at such time and place as the Superintendent of the Jail may appoint.

9. They must be industrious and attentive to their work or the duties assigned to them and they must not infringe or aid in infringing Jail rules.

10. For any misconduct or disobedience of orders, the Superintendent of the Jail is authorized, with the sanction of the Inspector General, to remand them to Jail, there to complete their sentence.

11. Prisoners who have been admitted to the benefit of these rules and whose conduct has been good shall, at the expiration of the term of two years, be released from Jail, on the conditions specified in the Rules No. II, in exercise of the powers vested in the Government by Section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

II.

1. The Superintendent will give to every prisoner, on his release, a ticket in English and Vernacular, on which shall be entered his descriptive roll, and the conditions on which his sentence is remitted.

2. The descriptive roll and ticket are to be in the form annexed. The ticket is to be signed by the prisoner in the presence of two witnesses, and countersigned by the Superintendent of the Jail.

3. A prisoner released on ticket-of-leave will be aided by the Police in finding employment, so long as he shall conduct himself properly.

4. On his release, the Superintendent of the Jail will give him sufficient money, from that at his credit in the prisoner's property register, to carry him to his home, or place of residence. The balance of the money at his credit will be transmitted to the District Superintendent of Police, when that officer shall apply it either to support the released prisoner or to set him up in his trade.

5. If, at the time of release, the amount of money to the prisoner's credit is too small to enable him to reach his home, and to provide himself with the implements of his trade, the Superintendent of Jail shall be at liberty to give him the implements he has been using whilst in prison.

6. At the time of release, the conditions of his ticket are to be carefully explained to him and accepted by him in writing.

7. He is, in the first instance, to report himself to the District Superintendent of Police of his District or, in his absence, to the nearest Magistrate.

8. If the prisoner fails to fulfil any of the conditions set forth in the ticket-of-leave, His Highness may cancel the remission of his punishment, whereupon he may be arrested by any Police officer without warrant and remanded to undergo his original sentence.

9. In every instance in which a prisoner is released on ticket-of-leave, copy of these rules, as well as a copy of the prisoner's ticket, shall be forwarded by the Superintendent of the Jail from which the prisoner is released to the District Magistrate and to the District Superintendent of Police of the District in which the prisoner is to reside.

No. 228.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi and kayamgutta villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodi and kayamguttadars, will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the dates specified, and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges before the property is knocked down or gives satisfactory proof that the amount of arrears, &c., had been paid up.

7. The sale of property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
